NUTRITIONAL MERIDIAN STRESS ASSESSMENT

In Our Office

Do you feel your health is out of control?

Do you want an in-depth assessment of your health with real answers on how to get it back?

Based on medical research, acupuncture points have been found to be directly related to the body's organ systems. The Meridian Assessment Technology allows these meridian points to be precisely measured to assess a patient's nutritional health and balance.

How much is it?

This assessment costs $149 and requires 25 minutes of your time. Ask your doctor to schedule you a time and...
